

MARTIN'S NEW

INDIANA

B♭ Tenor Saxophones

An exceptionally fine tenor

AT AN UNUSUALLY LOW PRICE

When you play this beautiful tenor, you may wonder why it plays so much easier than other low-priced saxophones. Here's the answer: This new Indiana tenor was designed by the same men who create famous Martin band instruments... and it's built by the same skilled craftsmen who make Martins! Newly improved key placement, uniform hardness of body, fast and dependable action, genuine Martin mouthpiece, professional quality pads, and many other features... all add up to wonderful performance in this fine saxophone that's priced among the lowest.

DE LUXE MODEL (illustrated) is finished in gold lacquer with bright nickel keys and special features shown below. Complete with neck strap, music lyre and mouthpiece. Professional type case has real leather binding and luxurious plush lining.

STANDARD MODEL has all-over gold lacquer finish. Same instrument as above except for nickel keys and special features. Complete with neck strap, music lyre and mouthpiece. Gladstone type case is lined with silk plush.
